

"...another great show that's on the verge of cancellation land...is Fox's "Undeclared," but some of the show's diehard fans are not standing idly by and letting it happen. They started an online petition to keep the show on the schedule...If you love "Undeclared," then show your support and sign it. If you don't sign it then this show could go the way of "Undeclared" creator Judd Apatow's other terrific show "Freaks and Geeks."

A quality comedy series that provides laughter through poignant elemental truths is tough to come by. Freaks and Geeks was one such show, providing honest insight to the transition between elementary school and high school, childhood and puberty. It was needlessly cancelled after but one season. The creators of Freaks and Geeks have a new show, one that is facing a similarly cruel fate. Undeclared began this season with a torrent of glowing reviews, but scheduling conflicts and an insane decision to air the show out of sequence has left it saddled with middling ratings. Now FOX is perilously close to canceling yet another one of television's only saving graces, please help keep this great show on the air.
